ALL SAINTS' VILLAGE NEWSLETTER No. 103

March 1981

The Rector's Letter

% dear Friends,

As most of you are well aware, LENT starts on Ash Wednesday and finishes on EASTER DAY. This year Easter is very late, 19th April, which means ASH WEDNESDAY is on 4th March (and for the children's information that means SHROVE TUESDAY - Pancake Day - is on 3rd March).

Lent lasts six weeks (or as the hymn puts it "forty days and forty nights"). It is a most important period in the Church's year. The custom may have originated in the prescribed fast of candidates for Baptism. The number "forty" was evidently suggested by the forty days fast of Moses, and Elijah, and especially of our Lord himself. During the early centuries the observance of the fast was very strict. Apart from the actual fasting, Lent was normally observed as a time of penance, by abstaining from festivities (including the solemnisation of marriage), by almsgiving and by devoting more than the usual time to religious exercises.

The observation of Lent continued in the Church of England after the Reformation and was revived by the Tractarians in the Nineteenth Century, and is now widely kept and practised.

The question that is important now is what difference is Lent and particularly HOLY WEEK going to make to our way of living this year? What are we going to do as a positive endeavour? "Giving up things" is a good discipline, but what active, positive thing, as opposed to a negative thing, are we going to attempt? Something that will help both us and our neighbour, remembering to ask ourselves "whose neighbour am I?"

The most important week in the year is, of course, HOLY WEEK - the week before Easter. During that week the Church characteristically observes and commemorates the events of "The Passion" as they happen:

PALM SUNDAY	-	Our Lord's entry into Jerusalem
MAUNDY THURSDAY	-	The Last Supper
GOOD FRIDAY	-	The Crucifixion
HOLY SATURDAY	-	Our Lord in the Tomb
EASTER DAY	-	The joyfulness of our Lord's Resurrection

We should record these happenings in our diaries, and make some special effort on these days, particularly reading what the Gospels tell us of these historical events. It is then important to remember Jesus died for us. What are we doing about it? What are we giving in return?

Yours sincerely,

Allan Campbell

AN OLD WOMAN'S LAMENT

They've brought you up to date, Lord, down at St. Cecilia's
They've pensioned off the organ, and they're praising with guitars.
They've done it for the young ones; we want to draw them in,
But I do wish they could worship without making such a din,
For I'm growing rather deaf, Lord, and when there's all that noise,
It gets so very hard, Lord, to hear your loving voice.
They've written brand-new hymns, Lord, with tunes that I don't know,
So I hardly ever sing now, though I did love singing so.
They're very go-ahead, Lord, they're doing Series Three,
But the words are not so beautiful as the others used to be.
They've modernised the Bible and the Lord's Prayer and the Creed,
When the old ones were so perfect that they filled my every need.
My mind's not quite so agile as it was some years ago
And I miss the age-old beauty of the words I used to know.
It's very clear to me, Lord, I've overstayed my time;
I don't take to change so kindly as I did when in my prime.
But it can't be very long now before I'm called above,
And I know I'll find you there, Lord, and glory in your love.
So till then I'll stick it out here, though it's not the same for me,
But while others call you 'You', Lord, do you mind if I say 'Thee'?

Pastoral Care following a Civil Marriage involving the re-marriage of a divorcee whose former spouse is still living

Guidelines issued by a Committee set up by the Bishop of Oxford for use in the Diocese

Two considerations have been held in mind in the preparation of these guidelines:

1. Canon B30 of the Church of England reads: "According to Our Lord's teaching marriage is in its nature a union permanent and lifelong, for better for worse, till death them do part". It is from this that there derives the discipline which precludes the "re-marriage" in a parish church of a divorcee.

2. The parish priest has nevertheless a proper pastoral concern for Christians whose marriage has broken down and who have re-married in a Register Office and a solemn duty to offer to those who seek it the benefit of his ministrations. We can, and indeed should, pray with and for anyone in any circumstances, and people who havs gone through the trauma of a divorce and who sincerely believe that what they are now doing by remarrying is a new beginning which can be secured by invoking God's blessing, should be treated sensitively and positively. To do otherwise would be both a failure in Christian charity and a tacit rejection of a golden opportunity for the deepening of Christian commitment.

As priests we are bound by both these considerations and loyalty to each of them confronts us all too frequently with a most delicate pastoral ministry.

Admission to Communion:

There should normally be no need for a priest to seek the Bishop's permission before admitting such people to Holy Communion. It can fairly be assumed that those who make this request see the reception of the Sacrament as both a significant aspect of their Christian commitment and an essential means of grace. Their penitence and their awareness of their need of Sacramental Grace is expressed in their desire to present themselves at the altar. However, if in the opinion of the parish priest admission to the Sacrament would cause open and grave offence, consideration of the request should at least be delayed.

Request for a "Service of Blessing"

Reverting to the two considerations, it has to be said at once that so long as (1) remains the stance of the Church of England, the pastoral ministry indicated as essential in (2) cannot take the form of the blessing of a second marriage. Since an official Form of Blessing is tantamount to approval, there is clearly little difference in principle between a Form of Blessing and a Service of Marriage. It can, however, be fulfilled by the personal dedication of the two people concerned each to the other and both to God and by prayers of the Parish Priest and their intimate friends that God may accept their intention and use for His own purpose the new relationship sealed in the Register Office.

It is where a service in church is requested that difficulty arises for the parish priest, who has to consider the motives which lie behind the desire. For instance, a request from people who have never hitherto been regular worshippers must be suspect and should not lightly be granted, though a priest would even so show himself willing to visit the home for prayers with the family. However, such a request from committed Christians cannot be dismissed - though thoughtful discussions of "pros and cons" might prompt its withdrawal. Where a request of this sort is granted care must needs be taken to avoid in what is done, any similarity to the Solemnisation of Holy Matrimony in the Prayer Book - first because the priest is not re-marrying the couple, secondly because to the unitiated such a service would be interpreted as an abandonment of the Church's teaching on marriage, and thirdly because sensitive Christians could scarcely hear, much less utter, the familiar words of the Church's marriage service without their opening sore wounds. Some simple act of devotion to God on the part of the couple concerned - embracing penitence, thanksgiving, dedication and petition - is all that is needed and could embrace all that is desirable.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH COMMITTEE

Evensong. It was decided that during Summer Time 1981 Evensong would again be held twice a month, on the 1st and 3rd Sundays at 6 p.m.

Family Service. This Service was very fully discussed and it was agreed that these services should be held once a month, usually on the 2nd Sunday of the month unless this coincided with a Festival such as Easter or Harvest. It was further agreed that the form of service should be a shortened 1662 Communion with the hope that the children should remain throughout. The Rector subsequently drafted a form of service which was used on the 8th February and was felt to have been very successful but could be further shortened in duration.

Architect's Report.

The architect had submitted a long report of suggested repairs and improvements to the Church, but the Committee felt that the treatment of woodworm and decay in the choir stalls, vestry and pews must receive prior and urgent attention and until estimates as to the cost of this work had been obtained and the work completed, other items should be postponed.

The FRIDAY FELLOWSHIP had a collection for the Church of England Children's Society and to this was added the collections taken at the Carol Service and Christingle Service, so that it has been possible to send a donation of £90 to the Society.

HOLY MATRIMONY

On Saturday, 29th November 1980 at All Saints' Church, Coleshill, Jennifer Mary, elder daughter of Mr. & Mrs. G.T. CREBER of Applecroft, Meadowcot Lane, Coleshill, to Peter John NICHOLLS, son of Mr, & Mrs. George Nicholls of Henbury, Bristol.

On Saturday, 14th February 1981, at St. Leonard's Church, Chesham Bois, Jane Philippa MACKENZIE to Marian Joseph ANTOSIEWICZ of Coleshill.

IN MEMORIAM

Alfred SAUNDERS died on 5th December 1980. He was born in Magpie Lane, Coleshill, in 1902 and lived in the village for many years until moving to Amersham. At his express wish he was buried with his parents at All Saints' Church, Coleshill.

Cyril KING of Hill Meadow, Coleshill, died suddenly on 28th December 1980 and was cremated on 9th January 1981.

William Peaden LAPPIN died suddenly at Amersham on 22nd January, 1981, aged 64 years. Bill Lappin came to Coleshill at the age of ten and lived here for 36 years. He attended the Village School and was a member of All Saints' Church choir until the war. After the war he became a sidesman, in which capacity he served until he moved to Amershamo He leaves a widow, Norah, and a son, Frank, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

CHARITABLE GIFTS.

From 6th April this year those who have entered into Deeds of Covenant with charities and who pay income tax at a rate higher than the basic rate will be able to increase their payments without additional cost to themselves.

The following table shows the extent to which donors can increase an existing net annual payment of £100 without additional costs

	Existing Deed	Higher rate of tax payable by donor
		40$	50$	60%
Net Payment	£100	115	140	.175
Tax at basic rate	43	49	60	75
Gross payment	143	164	200	250
Relief - higher rates	-	16	40	75
- basic rate	43	49	60	75
Net cost to donor	100	99	100	100

This change in last year's Budget is intended to assist charities and is brought to the notice of all those who have very kindly entered into Deeds of Covenant with All Saints' Church and in support of the Village Hall Appeal.

Suggestions regarding further sideshows are always welcome. Anyone wishing to help with the sideshows or, indeed, with the general administration of the Fete should please get in touch with the organisers.

COLESHILL WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

At the Annual Meeting of the Coleshill Women's Institute held last November, Mrs. Mo Jones was elected President, and the Committee is as follows:

Vice-Presidents:	Mrs. Collier and Mrs. Ovington
Hon. Secretary:	MrSo Joseph
Treasurer:	Mrs. Browne
Committee:	Mrs, Cox, Miss Deacon, Mrs. Jerram, Mrs. Pearce, Mrs. Woclacott

New members are warmly welcomed.

COLESHILL CLUB

In November we very much enjoyed slides of India which Mr. and Mrs. H. Maynard kindly presented to us. A very welcome tea was served.

At the December meeting we enjoyed a very nice Christmas Tea, a Christmas fruit cake was kindly given by Mrs. Stevens, also an iced cake was given. A small Beetle Drive was arranged, which turned out to be hilarious as only a few members knew how to play.

The New Year started with a luncheon party in January, prepared for members by the committee; a few games were played then a welcome cup of tea was served.

In February we were very pleased to welcome Mrs. Mo Brazil who kindly showed us slides of Oberammergau and a good tea was then served.

COLESHILL VILLAGE HALL MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The Village Hall Management Committee are planning to rebuild the Village Hall and Parish Room in the very near future,

The starting date depends on the outcome of our application for grant aid from the Local Authorities and we shall not know this until early April. If funds are available work will start as soon as possible and the Hall and Parish Room may not be available for new bookings after 20th April 1981. The Village Hall will be available for bookings already made up to and including 9th fey 1981. If sufficien funds are not available in April, start of work will be delayed and both buildings will be available for a little longer.

Provisional bookings, without deposit, may be made for dates after 20th April 1981, but it would be prudent to consider alternative venues such as the Village School, the Cricket Club Pavilion or the Church Marquee. Details are available as follows:

School:	Cricket Club :	Church Marquee :
Mrs, EC Stevens, Chairman of Governors, Cotswold, Coleshill. Tel: Am 42460	Mrs. M, Tilson 22 Hill Meadow, Coleshill Tel; Am 6005	Mr. A.M.V. Panton Waller's Oak, Coleshill Tel: Am 6183

Announcement will be made and a public meeting called as soon as the outcome of the application for grant aid is known,

COLESHILL RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION The A.G.M. will be held on 12th May 1981 at 8,15 p.m. Venue to be arranged later.

COLESHILL C.E. FIRST SCHOOL

On the 6th December, 1980, the Parents and Friends' Group held a cheerful Christmas Coffee Morning and Bazaar, which was well attended and much enjoyed. £11 was raised by the children alone for the National Children's Home, and over £90 was raised for the Group's Fund.

On the 11th December the Christmas Concert was produced in spite of health problems among the young Thespians, some of whom took unexpected parts at short notice. They rose to the occasion very well and the performance gave satisfaction to the performers as well as pleasure to the audience.

10th February 1981. The heavy rain on Monday soaked the prepared bonfire and lowered spirits but, by special arrangement with Odin, Thor (no thunder) and Woden, the sun shone for Coleshill's Up-Helly-Aa on Tuesday. Visitors from Ashley Green First School joined Jarl Jason and the Coleshill Vikings in their marching, singing and Longboat burning. The bonfire blazed up very quickly in a fresh breeze under a blue sky. After the ship, this year called "Flokki", and fuel had been reduced to ashes, thirsty Vikings and their escorts were refreshed with orange juice, crisps, tea and biscuits served by volunteers from the Parents and Friends' Group.

Prom the School Log Book 110 years ago:

1871= 19th April. Number of girls in school very low. So many having gone to the plaiting school where they can afford to pay 2 pence per week and learn a great deal of gossip when their plea is that they must be earning something. They cannot afford to pay for to send them to school. In looking down the register I find that a boy, although he has but just turned six years old, has been to work some little time, in all kinds of weather.

1st May. Children not so early to school this morning and several have gone a-Maying. Six girls played truant to do so in the afternoon.

17th May. Children still continue to be late in the morning. They made the most of their May Day in 1871!

Whist Drive There will be a Whist Drive held in the School on Thursday 2nd April.

MAGPIE CLUB

We started our Christmas activities by singing carols and delivering logs or scones to some of the older residents of the village.

We had a Christingle Service at All Saints' on the Sunday after Christmas and this included Nativity scenes by the children from the Magpie Friday Fellowship. The collection was sent to the Church of England Children's Society.

We had a family party which was well attended and everybody entered into things in very good spirit.

A photographer from the local paper came along and took photos of us all at the party for the Under Seven's. Some of the older Magpies had a playreading which they thoroughly enjoyed. We ended the holidays with a long hike which was very well attended and we walked for miles on a glorious sunny January afternoon. Our only casualty was "Mickey", the Ferguson's dog. who had a difference of opinion with another four-legged friend and came off the loser with a nastily bitten ear!

COLESHILL VILLAGE DRAMA GROUP

What a wonderfully entertaining evening the C.V.D.G. gave us at the beginning of December! The set, the costumes and the acting left nothing to be desired. Lindsey Haubner's production brought a new freshness to the witty, and perhaps, the best of Noel Coward's plays, "Hay Fever". The story centres round the Bliss Family, each talented in their own way, understanding and admiring each other, but nobody understands them! Judith Bliss (mother) is the pivot around which the play moves and this role was played by Ann Chenevix-Trench who gave a perceptive a and polished performance through three demanding acts. Her daughter (Sorel) played by Celia Hankinson gave an engaging and spirited portrayal greatly enjoyed by the audience, and this was matched by Stephen Hitchen as son Simon, who looked handsome and behaved exactly right. John Horsbrugh-Porter gave his usual dominating performance and, as the Head of the Family, was in his rightful place. The week-end guests were played by Georgina Collins, well and truly in the period both in dress and deportment, and Sandra Weller acted well as the shy Jackie who had to sleep in the Japanese bedroom! David Hall also did well as Judith'.s would-be lover who gets completely out of his depth, and Jim Dening gave a brilliant piece of character acting as the nervous and bewildered politician. The. part of Clara (Judith's ex dresser), now general 'dogsbody' was in the capable hands of Patsy Wright-Warren.

The elegant set was designed by Robert Griffiths and Colin Smith and Stage Managers were Sylvia Fairchild and Rebecca Harris. Hugh Jones, temporarily removed from "treading the boards" was responsible for the lighting, and the lovely dresses of the ladies and attractive men's attire were all produced (in one way or another) by Pat Emblow and Peggy Gow, Pat Emblow and Joy Chalk did a good job with make-up,

Ladies of the W.I. .served coffee and mince pies in the interval.

COLESHILL HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY - SPRING SOCIAL EVENING 27th MARCH 1981

At this time of year we see something new appearing in our gardens daily Most are colourful and welcome after the drabness. of another long winter, some are old enemies and some come as a complete surprise. Perhaps you are dreading the thought of all that gardening again - perhaps you can't wait to get out there!

Whichever your attitude you will find something to amuse and interest you at our Spring Social Evening, Mrs LIECHTI is well known locally for her light-hearted talk "Renovation of a Garden" or "How I became a Gardener" and this can be enjoyed, along with a glass of wine, in the Village Hall on Friday, 27th March.

+ + + + + + + + + + + + + +

We should also like to invite you to our A.G.M. on the 28th April, This will be an opportunity for you to suggest possible gardens for visits during the summer and present ideas for the staging of our Annual Village Show, should we temporarily find outselves without a Hallo And remember, if, at the end of the summer, you decide to throw in your spade and concrete over your entire plot, we'd love to have any plants you don't want for our Green Fingers Stall on 17th October!!

WOMEN'S WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

On this special day - the first Friday in March - Christian Women all over the world meet together to pray for common concerns. Starting at the International date line, and ending in Alaska, groups of women in different countries draft the service - which is translated into many different languages.

This year the theme "The Earth is the Lord's" found a ready response with our readers, and our Speaker - Mrs Elizabeth Harvey – who spoke of the beauty of the Earth and its wonder, which some of us take for granted.

"Our Service today bids us ponder on the millions of people God has placed on His earth and if each one of us would think positively and lovingly, it would have a result. My sincere prayer is that we will not only thank God for the wonder of His Earth, but will - with a firm determination - think and act positively in spreading His love and compassion to all His children."

The total attendance was 50, and the collection £22.07.
